

Bill of Rights Day is on the horizon Tuesday December 15.
Go to your local school, curry the favor of teachers and administration.
Print and share the words.
Enlist the aid of a few intrepid true singers and do it.
Raise the Flag and your voices ~ sing it! 🎵

It's a great way to celebrate our Constitution.
It's a great way to celebrate our country.
It's a great way to celebrate our heritage.
It's a great way to celebrate patriotism with the "tall and the small."

An easy, feel good project, that you won't regret.

The Twelve Interesting Amendments
From "Born Yesterday"
Sung to "The 12 Days of Christmas"

The First Amendment to the Constitution says;
Freedom of religion, speech, and press.

The second part of the First Amendment to the Constitution says;
Peaceful assembly.

And ... just say anything you like.

The Second Amendment to the Constitution says;
Right to bear arms.

Peaceful assembly.

And ... just say any crazy thing you like.

The Fourth Amendment to the Constitution says;
No search and seizure.

Here's my gun, freeze.

Assemble and be nice.

And ... just say any crazy thing you like.

The Fifth Amendment to the Constitution says;
Don't rat on yourself.

Where's your warrant please.

Here is my gun, freeze.

Assemble and be nice.

And just say any crazy thing you like.

The sixth Amendment to the Constitution says;
Right to a quick trial.

Don't rat on yourself.

Where's your warrant please.

Here is my gun, freeze.

Assemble and be nice.
And just say any crazy thing you like.
The thirteenth Amendment to the Constitution says;
Slavery is invalid.
Right to a quick trial.
Don't rat on yourself.
Where's your warrant please.
Here is my gun, freeze.
Assemble and be nice.
And just say any crazy thing you like.
The fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution says;
All races get the ballot.
Slavery is invalid.
Right to a quick trial.
Don't rat on yourself.
Where's your warrant please.
Here is my gun, freeze.
Assemble and be nice.
And just say any crazy thing you like.
The sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution says;
Congress can take taxes.
All races get the ballot.
Slavery is invalid.
Right to a quick trial.
Don't rat on yourself.
Where's your warrant please.
Here is my gun, freeze.
Assemble and be nice.
And just say any crazy thing you like.
The eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution says;
Alcohol will kill ya.
Uncle Sam will bill ya.
All races get the ballot.
Slavery is invalid.
Right to a quick trial.
Don't rat on yourself.
Where's your warrant please.
Here is my gun, freeze.
Assemble and be nice.
And just say any crazy thing you like.

The nineteenth Amendment to the Constitution says;

Women vote like men do.

Alcohol will kill ya.

Uncle Sam will bill ya.

All races get the ballot.

Slavery is invalid.

Right to a quick trial.

Don't rat yourself out.

Where's your warrant please.

Here is my gun, freeze.

Assemble and be nice.

And just say any crazy thing you like.